Returning JAG and AG students are welcome; please note that lessons will repeat from year to year.

Junior Analytical Grammar (JAG) (grades 4-6+) Tuesdays 3-4pm — 60-minute class; 24 weeks

This year-long course for students in grades 4-6+ requires two workbooks and two corresponding teacher books — (yellow) Junior Analytical Grammar and (orange) Junior Analytical Grammar: Mechanics. Together, these cover the following aspects of grammar:

- All the parts of speech, five sentence patterns, and parts of a sentence
- Classic sentence diagramming
- Six comma rules
- Capitalization
- Titles, dialogue, quotations, and possessives
- Usage units on agreements and word choice

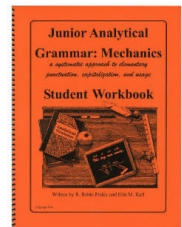

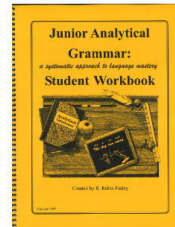

During the first semester, we will work through Junior Analytical Grammar. This workbook concentrates on the grammar basics, without going into the more complex concepts such as phrases and clauses. All the parts of speech (nouns, articles, adjectives, pronouns, prepositions, verbs, adverbs, and conjunctions) and the functioning parts of a sentence (subjects, verbs, modifiers, direct and indirect objects, predicate nominatives, and predicate adjectives) are covered.

In the spring, we will move to Junior Analytical Grammar: Mechanics, which focuses on punctuation, capitalization, and usage rules.

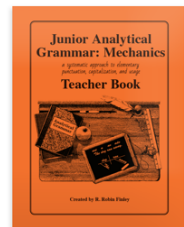

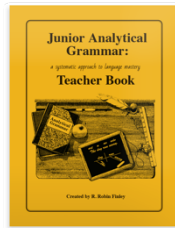

This is an ungraded class.

Required materials for JAG: 4 books

- Junior Analytical Grammar student workbook ($23)
<https://store.demmelearning.com/junior-analytical-grammar-student-workbook.html> (each student needs an individual copy)
- Junior Analytical Grammar: Mechanics student workbook ($23)
<https://store.demmelearning.com/junior-analytical-grammar-mechanics-student-workbook.html> (each student needs an individual copy)

- Junior Analytical Grammar teacher book ($23)
<https://store.demmelearning.com/junior-analytical-grammar-teacher-book.html> (one per family)
- Junior Analytical Grammar: Mechanics teacher book ($23)
<https://store.demmelearning.com/junior-analytical-grammar-mechanics-teacher-book.html> (one per family)

- Please plan to obtain all books before the first day of class. (PDF versions of both workbooks may be available; must be printed out in their entirety and bound in preparation for first day of class.)
- NOTE: You will not need the DVDs.

Analytical Grammar (AG) (grades 6-8 through high school) Thursdays 11:30am-12:30pm — 60-minute class; 30 weeks

This year-long course for students in grades 6-8 through high school requires a single hefty workbook — Analytical Grammar — and its corresponding teacher book. This book covers the following aspects of grammar:

- All the parts of speech and parts of the sentence
- Phrases and clauses
- Classic sentence diagramming
- Rules of punctuation and capitalization
- Common usage errors

According to the authors, “The concepts in Analytical Grammar are taught in a certain logical order, so that each concept builds on and is reinforced by the concepts already covered. For all intents and purposes, this method is not unlike the study of math where one is applying everything one already knows about math and simply moving on to a new concept ...

“[Analytical Grammar] is taught sequentially as a whole body of knowledge instead of being taught piece-meal along with writing or literature or other language activities ... Since every concept is woven logically together with every other concept, there simply is no reason for endless repetition and drill.”

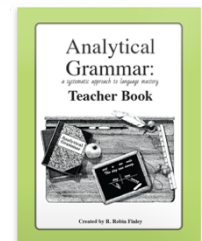

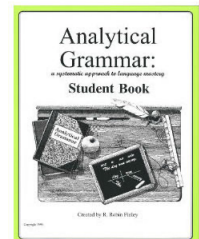

During the 12 fall weeks, we will work through “season” 1 and begin season 2. Over the 18 weeks in the new year, we will work through the rest of season 2 and the entirety of season 3. Depending on student comprehension of individual concepts, we may reduce the number of assigned sentences to parse for homework. Also, we will not diagram every sentence that we parse.

Upon completion of each season, the perforated pages of notes from each unit of Analytical Grammar can be removed from the workbook and compiled into a binder which the student can then use as a valuable complete and indexed grammar reference for years to come.

This class is worth 1 high school language arts credit.

Required materials for AG: 2 books

- Analytical Grammar student workbook ($52)

Semi-private tutoring (3)	$120 per student/6-week session
Class (4+ students)	$90 per student/6-week session

REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL STUDENTS

- ½-inch 3-ring binder for collecting diagrammed sentences during the class, and for compiling notes from the AG/JAG workbook after each season
- Highlighters
- Sharpened pencils
- Loose-leaf, lined paper in binder for diagramming
- Parent availability to check test answers
- Access to Internet, email, and Zoom

Students (or parents) must have email and Internet access for the following purposes:

- Follow-up information (lesson recap and assignment details) will be posted each week on Canvas or sent via email.
- In the event of student absences, with forewarning I may be able to video-record specific lessons. Recordings will be accessible via Canvas.
- I will provide detailed instructions for each of the above as needed.

For AG students needing just a bit of a refresher over the summer or in the future, Analytical Grammar does offer themed reinforcement books: American Authors, British Authors, World Authors, and Shakespeare's Plays. (Note: the green "Reinforcement & Review" book reviews only seasons 1 and 2 of AG.)
